Lethbridge Lifelong Learning Association Board of Director General Information

Lethbridge Lifelong Learning Association is currently recruiting new board of director members to join our dynamic team of professionals committed to lifelong learning in Lethbridge. We are looking for individuals with different skills who profess an interest in lifelong learning. Individuals interested in this position must first become individual members of Lethbridge Lifelong Learning Association and are then eligible to become a board member. Those interested please fill out an individual membership form and submit it to Leanne Armstrong, Executive Director of Lethbridge Lifelong Learning Association.

Benefits of being on the Lethbridge Lifelong Learning Board of Directors

- Becoming part of an organization that strives to break down barriers to learning for adults in the community.
- Contribute and commit to the mission and mandate of the organization.
- Use your knowledge to aid an organization committed to helping the community.
- Aid in mobilizing the volunteer and other Community Resources.
- Solve community issues through learning and address learning gaps.

About Lethbridge Lifelong Learning

In the early 1970's the Government of Alberta established Further Education Councils across the province; these councils mobilized resources to meet the learning needs of adults in their communities.

LLLA became one of these councils in 1973. Today, LLLA is one of 81 councils in Alberta and became incorporated under the Alberta Societies Act on September 15, 2000. LLLA is completely community based with a focus based on the needs of adult learners in a non-credit nature who have financial or other barriers to learning.

Thank you for considering joining the Lethbridge Lifelong Learning Association Board of Directors.
